AIIC's 36th Assembly in photos and tweets

Revisit the events in Addis Ababa through this day-by-day account showing the many faces of AIIC and our profession.

Angela KEIL.
Published: January 21, 2015 Last updated: December 2, 2015

The 2015 AIIC Assembly in Addis Ababa had one highlight after another. On the first full day of work members paid tribute to Josyane Cristina, who ran our secretariat for some 40 years, by naming her Executive Secretary Emeritus. On the following days they heard presentations and participated in discussions on language diversity and remote interpreting. Along the way they took care of association business.

(Keep scrolling in the pane below to view whole story.)
View the story "AIIC ASSEMBLY ADDIS ABABA 2015" on Storify

Recommended citation format: