AIIC at the 4th European Conference on Plurilingualism

The creative force of linguistic diversity celebrated at the 2016 Conference of the European Observatory for Plurilingualism/Observatoire Européen du Plurilinguisme.

Angela KEIL.
Published: May 24, 2016 Last updated: May 29, 2016

AIIC President Angela Keil participated in the May 2016 Conference of the European Observatory for Plurilingualism in Brussels. AIIC is a member of OEP/EOP with which it shares the goal of promoting linguistic diversity. The OEP/EOP generates original articles, and gathers and helps disseminate information from a network of partners. It also elaborates strategies regarding languages and plurilingualism. Here are some impressions from this year’s conference in photos and tweets.
View the story "Plurilinguisme et créativité: Les langues, cœur d'Europe" on Storify

Recommended citation format: