Exhibition in Milan: One Trial – 4 Languages

A homage to the Nuremberg interpreters and an exploration of conference interpreting today.

Angela KEIL.
Published: May 15, 2017 Last updated: May 15, 2017

AIIC Italy is hosting the exhibition "One Trial - 4 Languages" at the Scuola Civica for Interpreters and Translators of Milan from 12 to 18 May 2017.

The exhibition is dedicated to the interpreters who first worked in simultaneous at the Nuremberg Trials. The stories of their lives and experiences serve to show how they are part of AIIC’s DNA. The exhibition also aims to highlight the evolution of the profession as a vehicle for multilingualism and a means of exercising the right to linguistic identity.
Recommended citation format: