Each and every interpreter has a work-related story to tell, a special anecdote, an indelible memory that can be shared with others.

Michel LESSEIGNÉ.
Published: September 30, 2002 Last updated: December 2, 2015

On the occasion of the association’s 50th anniversary in 2003, the AIIC Bureau will prepare a collection of such personal memoirs to illustrate the immense wealth of professional experience that we interpreters harbor.

Tous les interprètes de conférence ont une anecdote, un événement, un fait marquant ou une histoire à raconter. Le Bureau, à l’occasion du 50ème anniversaire de l’Association, prépare un recueil destiné à rendre compte de l’immense variété et de la richesse des expériences professionnelles des collègues.

Communicate! is pleased to introduce this series of remembrances with articles from three respected colleagues.

Henri Methorst, a nestor of our profession, offers an overview of his 50 years in the field of conference interpretation.

Lire l'article

Former AIIC President Christopher Thiéry examines who conference interpreters are and how they gradually made a name for themselves.

Lire l'article

And Ruth Hall, a founding member of AIIC, describes tangible results of her work as an interpreter.

Read the article

All interpreters interested in contributing to this project are invited to submit an article (3-4 pages maximum) to:

Michel Lesseigne
338 Avenue Slegers
BE-1200 Brussels, Belgium
mlesseigne@3sucqtp.europarl.eu.int

Thanks go out to those colleagues who have already done so.

Les interprètes intéressés peuvent envoyer leurs articles (3 à 4 pages au maximum) à:

Michel Lesseigne
338 Av Slegers
BE-1200 Bruxelles, Belgique mlesseigne@2m.europarl.eu.int qui remercie les collègues qui l’ont déjà fait.

Recommended citation format: